

Some mail may be delayed

Due to a server outage overnight quite a lot of mail was spooled on the backup server.

This mail is taking some time to come through. It seems to mainly be because of timeouts involved in trying to bounce back SPAM messages.

Please bear with us and the mail should come through soon.